The Property

Surprisingly spacious cottage-like property with a stylish principal bedroom suite on a sought-after street

Entering the house on the ground floor, the front hall opens directly onto a generous reception room with a seating area, study and wood burner. This flows through to an open-plan kitchen and dining area, flooded with brightness from an overhead skylight and French doors leading into the garden.

The first floor features a generous double bedroom to the front and a bathroom. Meanwhile, to the rear of the split-level principal bedroom suite, with a dressing room and W/C on the first floor, and the bedroom and freestanding bath on the second.

The Design

Featured in a number of interior publications, the house has been exactly designed by our clients, and is presented in excellent condition. Wooden floors, exposed brickwork, and carefully placed internal glazing add to the sense of character and charm.

Outdoor Spaces & The Neighbourhood

The house includes an attractive rear garden with wooden decking and planted borders that is perfect for outdoor entertaining. It is also set back from the pavement with a small front garden giving added privacy.

Lothrop Street is a desirable address lined with trees and terraces of cottage-like Victorian houses. Part of the Queen's Park conservation area, it is close to Queen's Park station. The restaurants and shops lining Salusbury Road and Chamberlayne Road are both within walking distance. Finally, the Grand Union Canal, with its popular towpath for walking and running, is just a short distance away.
